

MOHAMMED SHAHABUDDIN SOHARWARDI

SUMMARY

Hi, I am Mohammed Shahab a passionate computer science student and highly motivated to learn new things about it. While also being productive and helping in all the ways I can. I highly participate in any of the activities that might involve your technology. I always try to learn and try to apply all the knowledge that I have gained and will gain. I try and observe my seniors who are more skilled than me and grasp the ways that I lack through them. Dedication from my side would never seem less for I try to achieve tangible results though with any obstacles
